

Pineapple

Miniature Horse

Born: 2010 Gender: Gelding (Male)

Pineapple joined our ohana in 2020 after being lovingly rescued by the Equine Rescue League. His journey has shaped him into a beautiful example of resilience and trust. With his spunky personality, gentle heart, and playful spirit, Pineapple brings both laughter and comfort to those around him. He has a special way of connecting with children and families - whether it's standing quietly for a soft nose-to-nose moment or showing off a bit of his silly side. Pineapple reminds us that healing is possible and that strength can shine through even the hardest beginnings.

Fun Fact!

The average height of a miniature horse is around 34-38 inches. They are measured in inches rather than hands, which is the standard for larger horses.
