

Baby & Seven

American Quarter Horse (color: Dun)

Born: 1995/1994 Gender: Gelding (Male)/Mare (Female)

Baby & Seven with Aunt Mae

Baby and Seven are siblings and are often referred to as the “twins.” Baby’s real name is “Wally’s Bay,” but he goes by his nickname “Baby” (short for “Babycakes”). Seven’s full name is “Sevenly Delight.” They often engage in synchronized walking and love to share everything, including feed bowls. Seven’s prior owner, “Aunt Mae”, rode her until she was 86 years old. After her passing, Baby and Seven joined our ohana in 2021, where they share their love with everyone who visits.

Fun Fact!

A horse’s age can be estimated by their teeth, specifically the shape and angle of the incisors. Baby and Seven are 32 and 31 years old respectively, or approximately 96 and 93 in “human years” (horsesquad.com)
