

Willink

Bay Horse

Born: 2003 Gender: Gelding (Male)

Willink is a retired, highly accomplished international horse show jumper from the Netherlands. He competed at the highest levels of the sport, including winning the prestigious 1.60m (5'3") Grand Prix at the CSIO5* Gijón show, one of Europe's top international events. In 2015 he was the 5th best jumper in the Royal Dutch Sport Horse studbook rankings! Since joining Ohana in 2022, Willink has embraced a new chapter filled with connection and purpose. Known for his soulful eyes and gentle spirit, he has quickly become a beloved member of the family. His kind nature and quiet presence leaves a lasting impression on everyone he meets, and many would say he is simply unforgettable.

Click or scan to sponsor Willink

Fun Fact!

Willink flew to the United States on a cargo plane outfitted for horses. His passport has approximately 50 stamps on it!

See some of his past performances

